CAPTAIN COOK WALLPAPER

Five strips of this fine series, known as the Captain Cook Wallpaper, showing The Dance of the Otahiti Girls before King O-too, War Canoe and The Death of Captain Cook, have been recently hung in the second-floor southeast room of the Harrison Gray Otis House. With them are eleven strips of the rare Hindustan Scenery series. Both sets were printed by Dufour of Paris and Macon, France, between 1804 and 1815.
